Decennial Celebrations

April 2017 – March 2018

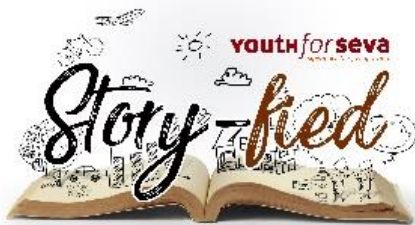

Namaste,

Here's a peek into our year-long celebrations to mark a decade of making a difference to the society. Along with the regular stream of volunteering activities, our team gave it their all to sensitize and engage more numbers in donating their time and talent for community service.

Join us, as we commit to making the nation-building volunteering movement bigger and better. Come, experience the joy of giving. Register as a Volunteer Now!

STORY-FIED

Come, be a story-teller!

A campaign to mark Youth for Seva's mission of 'making volunteering a movement', Storyfied saw 7411 volunteers narrate a story based on the theme of resilience, to 157067 underprivileged children across India, over a single weekend (July 21-23, 2017).

An illustrated story book was published by Youth for Seva for the campaign, and distributed to volunteers and beneficiaries.

Corporate Volunteering Conclave

CVC 2018

Reaffirming it's efforts towards enabling institutions to effectively engage community to deliver services, Youth for Seva organized the 'Corporate Volunteering Conclave' on March 16th, 2018, to bring to light the best practices of corporate employee engagement.

In a first of it's kind event, 300+ delegates including corporate volunteers, executive champions, leaders from the development sector, CSR experts and policy makers were brought together to brainstorm and share ideas as part of this National symposium on sustaining communities through corporate engagement and volunteering.

The conclave also saw the release of two publications:

A benchmarking study titled: 'Right way to leverage corporate volunteering'

Corporate Volunteering Handbook: A tool to enable and enhance employee engagement in volunteering.

Change Agent Fellowship

Youth for Seva aims to empower and enable individuals to become positive change agents. The 'Change Agent Fellowship' was launched to channelize the same.

We believe that anybody who wants to be a catalyst for change and create an impact - be it students, working professionals, home-makers or others, can be a change agent.

Apply for the fellowship NOW, and be an agent of change.
