STORY ON HOLIDAYS: (While telling the story try to use body language in order to engage the students )

Ram's school just got over. His summer holidays have started. He is very happy and excited. He wants to play cricket with his friends during the holidays. His sister likes to sing, dance and read books during the holidays. Ram and his sister like watching movies together during the holidays.

They were happy to go to the zoo with their parents to see the birds and animals. There were many beautiful Peacocks. They even saw a white tiger. Ram's sister got scared when the tiger roared.

Later they spent their vacation with their Grandmother, Uncle and Aunt at their hometown. They had a nice time playing with their cousins all day long. They enjoyed their Grandmother's food. Then they went to the beach and played with the sand. At night, their grandfather narrated bedtime stories. This was how they had a memorable vacation.
